Remarks.—As the sanction for the present Office Establishments of one Estimator and one Writer will expire at the end of the current month, and as the services of these men cannot be dispensed with until the submission of the revised arrangements for the head works, provision has been made in this statement for their salaries also.

2. From a careful calculation of the sum that will be required for allowances during the current official year, I find there will be a saving of at least Rupees 600 under this head, and as this amount will more than cover the extra cost* of the necessary establishment, I trust the proposed re-distribution of funds will meet with your approval.
